

VOTES FOR SCHOOLS

Voters explore how we express our emotions, and identify which of these they think are the most appropriate and helpful. They also consider the ways in which we deal with big feelings changes depending on your situation or who you are.

1CF: "In Year 1, we think that people deal with their feelings in different ways and we need to learn to respect each others feelings."

1MW: "We think people can deal with feelings differently, but everyone should let someone know if you are ever feeling sad."

2CH: "We are all different, so we should all have a different way of working through our big feelings."

2KW/BC: "Sometimes when I am felling a big emotion I take myself to my room to calm down."

3CL: "One of our big feelings is anger. To help us we can ask for a quiet place to go to if we feel angry."

3SB: "The boy in the picture may be feeling frustrated because he might have lost the match. We could help him by using kind words."

4CH: "No, we shouldn't deal with big emotions in the same way because it can depend on what has happened with how we would deal with it."

4LW: "No, we shouldn't deal with big emotions in the same way because people should be able to choose how they deal with different things."

5HM/KA: "Everyone is allowed to have their own emotions and deal with them however they want to, as long as they don't harm others."

5RS: "No, everyone is different and should be allowed to deal with their emotions in their own way."

6DA: "Everyone should be able to express their emotions in a different way."

6KM: "Everybody is equal and everybody has a right to show their emotions as they wish."
