

VOTES FOR SCHOOLS

To mark South Asian Heritage Month, voters explore the countries at the centre of the celebrations and consider their connections to the UK.

1CF: We think it is important to learn about other cultures because we can learn about their languages, food that they eat and the festivals they celebrate."

1MW: "Yes, because some people might not know about other cultures and they might want to learn more."

2CH: "Its important to learn about other cultures."

2KW/BC: "I'd really like to learn more about Asian cuisine."

3CL: "We enjoyed learning about other cultures and would like to know more."

3SB: "Asian culture is interesting and it is good to learn about other people."

4CH: "I think we don't know enough and we should maybe have visitors who know lots about South Asian heritage to help us learn."

4LW: "Even though we have looked at South Asian Culture in Votes for schools this week, we still think we don't know enough about it and would like to learn more."

5HM/KA: "Its good and educational to know how other cultures live."

5RS: "It is important to know about different cultures, you can never have too much knowledge."

6DA: "We don't feel we know enough about South Asian History, however we would like to find out more as South Asia is important to our history and it is important to know about other cultures and their history."

6KM: "I think we need to learn more about this subject since not many people know about it and how important it is."
